

How to find us:

Meditrina Building 260
Babraham Research Campus
Cambridge CB22 3AT, UK
t: +44 (0)1223 497140

How to find us:

By car

From the M11: Leave the M11 at junction 10. Take the A505 eastbound towards Newmarket. When it merges with the A11 northbound to Newmarket and Norwich, stay in the left-hand lane and leave at the next exit (Four Went Ways). At the roundabout, take the first exit for the A1307 to Cambridge. Disregard the first turn left signposted to Babraham Village, and continue to the next roundabout, taking the first exit signposted Babraham Research Campus. Crescendo's premises are located in the Meditrina Building, also known as Building 260.

From the A1(M): Leave the A1(M) at junction 9 on the A505 to Baldock. Stay on the A505 past Royston, crossing the M11 at junction 10, then follow the directions from the M11 above.

From the A14 (west): Follow the A14 eastwards until it becomes the M11 southbound at Cambridge. Stay on the M11 for another 9 miles (15km), and turn off at junction 10 (A505). Follow directions from the M11 (above).

From the A14 (east): From the A14, take the A11 towards London until you reach the Four Went Ways roundabout (the junction with the A1307 to Cambridge and Haverhill). Take the third exit for the A1307 towards to Cambridge. Disregard the first turn left signposted to Babraham Village, and continue to the next roundabout, taking the first exit signposted Babraham Research Campus. Crescendo's premises are located in the Meditrina Building, also known as Building 260.

From central Cambridge: Take the A1307 signposted to Haverhill, past Addenbrookes Hospital. Babraham is located a further 3 miles (5km) outside of Cambridge, approximately 6 miles south east of the city centre. Turn right off the A1307 at the Babraham Research Campus roundabout, taking the second exit. Crescendo's premises are located in the Meditrina Building, also known as Building 260.

By Rail

The nearest rail station to Babraham is Whittlesford, on the line from London Liverpool Street – Cambridge. Whittlesford is about 4 miles (7km) from Babraham.

There are frequent and direct services from London King's Cross and London Liverpool Street to central Cambridge. A taxi service is available.

Regional Railways provide regular services from Birmingham, the Midlands, East Anglia and the North West. Connections from Scotland and the North East are available with a change of train at Peterborough.

By Bus

The Babraham Research Campus can be reached by bus from Cambridge city centre. The Linton and Haverhill 13/13A service operated by Stagecoach departs from the Drummer Street bus station every 30 minutes and takes 20 to 25 minutes. The service also stops close to Cambridge rail station (near the junction of Station Road and Hills Road) and at Addenbrooke's Hospital. The entrance to the Institute is off a roundabout roughly halfway between Addenbrookes Hospital and Abington, and there is a bus stop adjacent to it. You can search for the timetable 13/13A timetable at <http://www.stagecoachbus.com/timetables.aspx>.

By Air

Babraham is approximately a 30 minute drive from London Stansted Airport. Follow the signs for M11 Cambridge and follow the driving directions above from the M11.

London's Heathrow and Gatwick Airports are further away, but are linked to Cambridge by good road and rail services.